Wednesday's, June 15-August 3
NEW: Evening class time available!

Are you looking for something fun and exciting for your kids this summer?
Join us for Little Sprouts! An eight week summer class full of hands-on activities, crafts, story time, exercise, and snacks for children ages 3-10!

Classes will be held every Wednesday from June 15 to August 3. We will have three class sessions each Wednesday (9:00-10:30am, 11:00-12:30pm and 5:00-6:30pm - NEW!!). All classes will meet under the pavilion at Flinchbaugh's Orchard and Farm Market. Check-in will begin 15 minutes before each class.

Our goal is to offer the best learning experience for each child. Depending on registrations, we may cap classes for specific times/ weeks. We also may split the classes into groups based on ages.

You MUST pre-register for EVERY class you plan on attending!
For Early Bird Pricing - Registration & Payment is Due June 13, 2016

Class Fees: Early Bird Discount $7 per child per class if paid by June 13!
OR $9 per child per class if paid day of class.

Classes will be taught by Jackie Hill and Becky Krape, both PA certified teachers with clearances.

Class Schedule

June 15th: An Apple a Day Keeps the Doctor Away!

Apples are a favorite fruit for many people! Today we will take a look at apples and how many different ways we use them. We will also learn some of the ways our bodies benefit from eating apples.

June 22nd: Oink! Oink! Pigs and Bacon

Everyone loves bacon with their pancakes or eggs for breakfast, right? Today, we will take a look at the animal that provides us with bacon. We will take a walk to go visit this farm animal!

June 29th: Pumpkins and Gourds, What's the Difference?

Pumpkins and gourds have some similarities but are very different. Even though we don't normally think about pumpkins and gourds until fall, we will take a look at how pumpkins grow and the many ways we use them.

July 6th: The Bug War – Good vs. Bad

Most people don't like creepy crawly bugs, but here at Flinchbaugh's Orchard there are some bugs that we do like! We will take a look today at bugs – the good, the bad, and the ugly. Do you know which bugs we consider the good bugs?

July 13th: Does a Farmer's Work Ever End?

Farmers always have a job that needs done. Let's take a look at what jobs farmers do during the four seasons. The weather can also play a big role in a farmer's job – in both good and bad ways.

July 20th: Goats – Cheese, Milk, Soap

Goats aren't usually as popular of a farm animal as cows and pigs, but today we will get to know our unfamiliar friend. We will take a look at what all goats can provide us with. There might even be a chance to get to meet one of these unfamiliar friends!

July 27th: What is This Green Stuff on My Plate? Vegetables!

Fresh veggies are a summer time favorite! Today we will look at many different kinds of vegetables and how they grow. We will even get to taste some of them in our yummy snack!

August 3rd: Let's Celebrate Little Sprouts!

The final week of Little Sprouts always brings mixed emotions to the staff at Flinchbaugh's Orchard; both excitement and sadness. Join us for a day of looking back on all of the fun we had over the past seven weeks together! Today will be a fun day with exciting activities!

Children who attend five or more Little Sprouts classes will receive a special reward at the final Little Sprouts class on Wednesday, August 3rd!
